Memories are funny things. Certain things can trigger them and send a rush of reminiscing towards you. One object that really triggers memories is a yearbook. Once you graduate from high school you will forget certain things from your adolescence, it's inevitable. But a yearbook helps you remember all those little details of your high school career that would otherwise be forgotten. A yearbook is like the scrapbook of high school; it's pages filled with pictures, friends, information, and most of all, memories.

I would like to give a big thanks to my yearbook advisors Mr. Maitland and Miss Colwell, and all of my assisting editors, especially my partner in crime Taurean. Thank you also to Jess, Tess, Christy, and Deanna. Although our staff was small, everyone did a great job and the entire staff should be extremely proud of all their achievements and all of their hard work. Thankfully we were able to meet all of this year's stressful deadlines on time and all of the pages were fully completed. This in itself is a huge achievement. In the end, through all the hardships, we pulled it all together and I am pleased to consider the '09 yearbook a huge success.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Rome Free Academy Alma Mater

"To Thee, RFA,
our allegiance we bring;
with truth and loyalty.
As comrades we come,
with our minds seeking light;
and our spirits bold and free.
Oh, dear Alma Mater,
we will honor thee more and more.
So teach us to be true to thee,
Alma Mater RFA."

We will always remember...

"It was time to move on. It was a memorable place, but it was time for the community and the people to move on."
-Mr. MacLachlan

For 82 years Rome Free Academy has been a long standing symbol of tradition, excellence, and achievement. Formerly located at 500 Turin Street, this school succeeded two previous schools located on 301 North James Street. Throughout the years there have been many memories created at RFA. Although the old RFA will be greatly missed, many people in the community felt it was time to say good bye to the long-standing structure. The building stood for 82 years and was a place of learning for 76. Built by Strandberg Bros. Co. from Chicago and designed by Tooker and Marsh from New York, the school survived a fire that threatened to destroy the building when it was only 12 years old. The old RFA endured many hardships throughout it's life. The school proved that it was tough as well as virtuous. The legacy of the old RFA will always be remembered.

"It wasn't just a building, it was a school with a spirit."
- Mrs. Waters

"I began my teaching career at the old RFA. Although crumbling and in disrepair, there was a certain warmth and charm about the building that is greatly missed."
-Miss Colwell

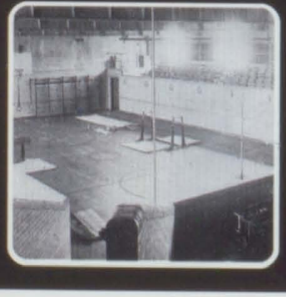

"For years the school district tried to find a viable reuse for the building but there wasn't enough support from the community."
-Mr. Terenzetti

Homecoming is a weekend one always remembers. Homecoming is the weekend of the last home football game. Homecoming is a week long event that lets kids show off their school spirit with Spirit week. Students and teachers participate in the Pep Rally after school which included a water slide, velcro wall, a dancing competition between fall varsity sports, and a pie eating contest. The Pep Rally is held annually to get everyone in the cheering mood. Another activity that takes a couple weeks to get ready for is float building. This year's float theme was Disney. The seniors had Aladdin, the juniors had Toy Story, the sophomores had The Pirates of the Caribbean and the freshmen had The Haunted Mansion. Students from each class get together after school to put in a couple hours toward building the floats which are voted on during the half-time of the football game. This year's winners were the seniors. Also announced at the game is the Homecoming Court. This year's King and Queen were Corey White and Emma Duchesneau. After an exciting Friday night, the students and teachers get down and boogie at the Homecoming Dance held right here at RFA.

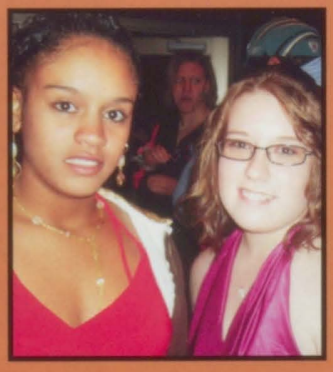

The Court

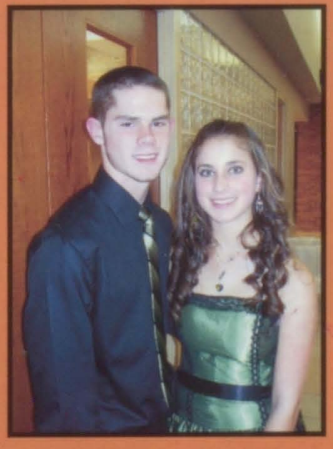

Boys: Lord Mario Gomez, Prince Eric Townsend, Duke Marco Dominic, Count Zach Cicotti and King Corey White
Girls: Queen Emma Duchesneau, Countess Kristin Metzger, Princess Sarah Eggan, Duchess Ashley Pacicca and Lady Deanna Dearo

Valentine's Day Dance 2.07.09

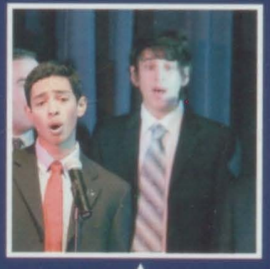

Love is in the air: slow songs and slow dancing are part of the annual Valentine's Day Dance held in the lobby here at RFA. Students got the chance to dance with their friends and high school sweethearts, making memories that will last forever.

Alley Cats

Former Rome Free Academy student Jon Terenzetti, class of '06, performed with the Yale Alley Cats on March 27th in the auditorium. There are seventeen members in the all male acappella group. They have performed in twenty different countries all over the world. The Alley Cats also performed with our very own Select Choir. Many who attended the show said it was very enjoyable.

5. Dana Aranas sings her heart out.
6. Stacy Spindler plays the piano.

Open Mic Night is an annual show set up by the Junior class. This year's event was held on November 21, 2008. More than 300 people were in the audience listening to electric guitars, kids singing and playing the piano. All together there were 25 performances, some from bands as well as soloists. Before the final performers are chosen there are two days of auditions where kids have to play in front of the judges to see if they can qualify to participate on the big night. Some of the audience favorites and most talked about acts include:

-"These are My Friends" featuring Shelby Bird, Kenneth Cobble and Mark Tardugno, Stephanie Mata, Eric Leonard, Hector Gonzalez, and Richie Klockowski.
-Emcee, Eric Pacicca
-"Tommy Eat the World" featuring Travis Holmes, Josh Morgan, and Tommy Flemming.
-The "Capitals" featuring Alex Newby, Jordon Hoffman, Jair Linder, and Zach Wade

Another person who kept the entertainment going was Tim Parker. He played the piano when other groups were setting up between acts.

Inauguration Trip 2009

President Barack Obama

Over thirty RFA Students were able to witness history in the making at the 2009 Inauguration Ceremony with the election of the first black president. Students and chaperones were just yards away from President Barack Obama and Vice President Joe Biden as they walked by in the parade. Although the temperature was frigid, the sun happened to be shining down on this most glorious day.

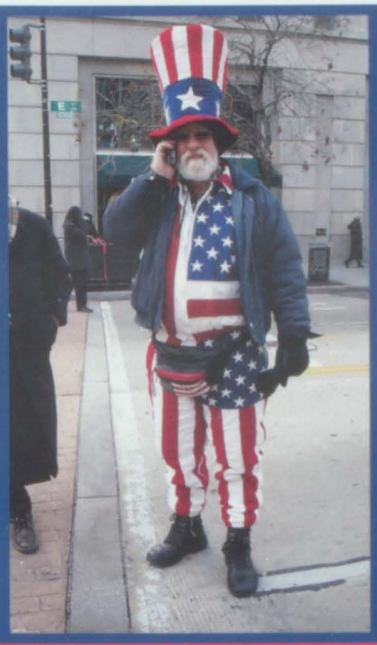

The students embarked on their journey to Washington D.C. Monday January 19th and stopped by Gettysburg, Pennsylvania to brush up on their history. The next morning bright and early students gathered at the train station to head into downtown Washington. Arrival time was approximately 8 am and students left that evening at 5 pm. This day will be long remembered by millions. Proudly, RFA was a part of this day.

We walked through these doors just three short years ago. As this year comes to a close, we are one step closer to being seniors and one step closer to becoming adults. We are almost through with our high school career and have learned much and matured greatly. We will end this year with great sadness as well as great joy as we prepare for our senior year of high school. Next year we will have our last first day of high school as we begin our final year at RFA. It is then that we will experience our last pep rally, our last homecoming, our last Heat of Fusion, and finally our very last day of high school. However, with so many lasts comes so many firsts; our first day of high school as a senior, our first senior ball, the first time we can look around and say that we, as seniors, are at the top of the food chain. So many changes have taken place within us throughout our time at RFA. We really have matured and we no longer are the wide eyed freshmen we once were. Now we are juniors, and we are "The Next Big Thing."

THE NEXT BIG THING

SOPHOMORES

2011

On Our Way

With the completion of this year, we are halfway through high school with so much to look forward to. No longer the youngest in the building, we are now familiar with the teachers, principals, hallways, and everything else that makes RFA so much different than all the schools before it. Among some of the things we, as sophomores, enjoy the most are being able to go to football and hockey games. The semis are a great time, too, and make us look forward to having the Junior Prom in 2010. This year the entire sophomore class took the PSAT as part of the GEARUP Program that we are fortunately a part of as well as heard many great speakers who came to visit our school. There are so many amazing times ahead!

JUMP START

As a freshman you walk through the doors of RFA not knowing what to expect. You make an adjustment from the middle school to the high school. With the increased size of the school and now taking classes for credits, your first year can be a little stressful. RFA opens doors to new opportunities. You get more choices and freedoms. You have the ability to choose if you would like to take gym or swim, what sciences you would like to take and sports to play. You have so much to look forward to, like sporting events, Heat of Fusion, and school dances. Prom is just around the corner. You have the ability to choose your life path starting now; you are on the road to success. It all comes down to the decisions you make in life. You only have three years left, but they go fast.

★ Freshmen Class Officers: President Drew Hinman, Vice President Michael Grider, Secretary Marcus Campos, Treasurer Connor Richie ★

Randy Linderman uses a microviewer in Living Environment class to examine cells. Despite Randy's soccer injury, he still puts school first.

FACULTY

The faculty at Rome Free Academy is an important part of the school. They help so much, not with just teaching us the things we need to learn but with other problems too. They are kind and caring. Throughout the years, some have taught thousands of students and others have taught hundreds. Then we have the substitutes, who are a great deal of help. It gives the teachers a chance to take the time off that they need and not have to worry that their classes aren't learning something useful. The faculty take the time to make sure that every student understands the material, that he or she is learning and if they don't they make sure that they can work with them to get them to understand. Also faculty members take the time to make sure that field trips and school functions are going smoothly; if it wasn't for them then most school activites would not be possible. All the students of Rome Free Academy would like to say that we appreciate all the faculty for their hard work around the school.

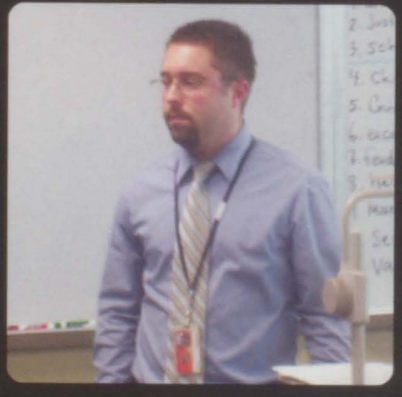

THOSE WHO CARE

Coach Tabolt and Mrs. Grasso are two of RFA's most fit teachers!

Mr. Soborowski shows a PROOF on what a great value the yearbook really is.

Social Studies teacher Mr. Rheaume accurately teaches history.

One of Rome Free Academy's most beloved teachers, Biology teacher Mrs. Calogero, works with sophomore Taylor Maclaughlin on microscope techniques. Calogero is in her 24th year of teaching and says, "I just love kids!"

Ask any teacher, principal, or student and they will tell you that secretaries are the backbone of RFA. The secretaries who have worked here over the years bring organization and structure to this school. They are constantly there to help students and staff alike far exceeding the traditionally held idea of a secretary. From Mrs. Weatherly's smile to Mrs. Abone's compassionate ear, RFA is fortunate to have such great ladies working with us.

SPORTS

Rome Free Academy is known for its strong tradition of excellence in sports. Every team has been successful in its own way, progressing year to year. It is inspiring watching the strength of our teams grow. The many traditions and past success of RFA sports helps drive our athletes to pursue their dreams and make the most of their goals. As beginning young athletes many were nervous and scared, but as our athletes grew older they became confident in their skills and their drive to compete and win took precedence. By junior and senior year they understand what is expected of them and work to their highest potential to help lead their new teammates. This is what it means to be a Knight- proud and strong. Once one wears the black and orange, one feels that pride forever!

CLUBS

There are so many different clubs to join here at RFA. Whether the club is trying to make the world a safer and cleaner place or students just go to learn new things, just about every interest is covered by our clubs. Some have been around for years, and others are new to RFA, but they give all the students and faculty a chance to jump in and participate. From Chess Club to SADD, recycling cans and bottles to learning about a new culture or two, there is a club to draw an interest to everyone here at RFA. There are recreational clubs, the Knight Times, and clubs that have a touch of music or art. Some take place before school like STASS or after school like many language clubs such as French, Italian and Spanish and more academic clubs like Science and Mathletics. The time that students have during the club meetings is usually centered around learning and fun. Some clubs plan trips and some just work together to make the world better for all. Thanks to the staff, many clubs have been created to help teach students about things they might not have thought about before. You should strive to learn new things everyday. Don't miss out on the opportunities offered by the clubs here at RFA!

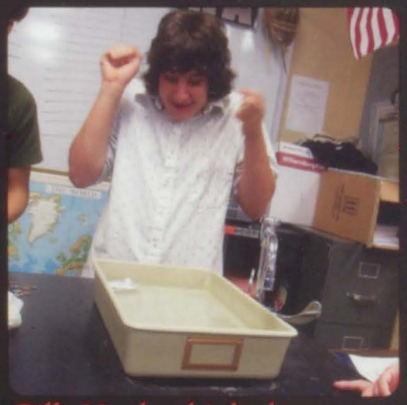

[It's What We Do]

Josh Roe symbolizes a student who has lost his life due to drunk driving. With the help of SADD, we can ensure that this never happens at RFA.

Kevin Chen helps to save the world in recycling club.

Billy Mucha thinks buoyancy is fun!

We're off to see the Wiz: The adorable and fun-loving "munchkins" welcome Dorothy.

This year's spring musical was adapted from The Wiz. It is based on the original movie The Wizard of Oz.. This musical follows Dorothy as she travels through Oz to meet the Wiz. The talented cast includes Pilar Padron as Dorothy, Megan Montana as Aunt Em, Taylor Harding as Addeperle, Jair Linder as Scarecrow, Jordon Hoffman as Tin Man, Trevor Cardwell as Lion, Nick Mellace as The Wiz, Jamilla Claypool as Evillene, and Brittany Bartlett as Glinda. This year's performance included more choreography than ever with some numbers being completely dancers. The cast and crew were able to create an amazing performance in a two-month time frame. The show took place on April third and fourth.

What is the Knight Spot you ask? The Knight Spot is Rome Free Academy's School store, run by Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Zeller. The Knight Spot is a great way to jumpstart your knowledge of owning a business. The Knight Spot not only raises money for RFA but raises money for Making Strides Against Breast Cancer. The Knight Spot is many students favorite part of lunch. After you finish eating lunch and you want to wash it down with a tasty Slushie, the Knight Spot is the place to go.

Speech and Debate is a club that offers students the opportunity to practice and refine the skills of communication while developing the self-confidence needed to speak in front of an audience. Skills in research, logic, organization, and writing will be developed. In speech and debate arguments are put forward and followed by votes.

"The winter months can be so dull, but with the help of Advisor Mr. Tuggey, Ski Club members were able to spice up their snow season! Every Wednesday during the months of January through March, weather permitting, students would board the coach bus to Toggenburg Mountain! The fun filled slopes are located in Fabius, NY about an hour away from RFA. "Togg" (as the ski club students call it) had over twenty-three trails, two lifts and rope tows. It was safe to say, Toggenburg had something to offer everyone. Ski club students ate at Togg's cool cafe or at the Foggy Goggle Restaurant, choosing from a wide variety of foods. By the end of the season everyone was saying more "Togg Please!"

Bible club meets every other Tuesday and Thursday. They are advised by Mrs. Mastrangelo and Mrs. Saunders. While in Bible Club students learn about the Bible and scriptures. Bible Club is open to all students and welcomes all that would like to join.

Jazz Band

Jazz Band, directed by Mr. Meiss, had a very successful year. The club went on a tour that the Jazz Band refers to as the "Tour of Meiss n' Men" to five different elementary schools during regents week. They also performed at the Pops Concert, the All-City Concert, Oneida Jazzfest, the Spring Concert, at the band competition field trip, and the Jazz Concert.
With the expansion from 6 people last year to a grand total of 22 people this year, Jazz Band meets Thursdays after school at 2:30-4:00. Occasionally, they met on Tuesdays to prepare for concerts and other shows. Jazz Band would like to congratulate their 6 seniors leaving - you will be missed!

The History of Our Paper

Editor in Chief
Senior Kayla Holmes

The school newspaper has been an RFA tradition for more than 70 years. Originally called The Parrot in the late 1930s, it later became The Echo, under the guidance of former teachers Lincoln Kan and Marylin Dykens. In the 1990's, the newspaper was renamed The Knight Times and has been that ever since. The Knight Times continues to win Gold Awards at High School Press Day and from the Empire State School Press Association. Published and distributed by the Daily Sentinel, The Knight Times reaches thousands of homes in the community. In addition to the newspaper, the KT staff is responsible for daily updates on the rfakt.com web site and for tv newscasts co-produced with the BOCES broadcast technology students on closed-circuit channel 62.

The De-O-Wain-Sta has been around for over 100 years. Students from every class join yearbook to put in their ideas about themes, and designs. Yearbook is chock full of things to do. There are photographers always taking pictures for sports, clubs, or candids. Students create pages, finish up deadlines, and make last minute changes to ensure this book is as memorable to RFA students as it is to the staff. Every year the De-O-Wain-Sta enters the previous year's book into a statewide competition that meets at Syracuse University. The 2008 edition of the De-O-Wain-Sta received many awards at ESSPA including: Honorable Mention in the category of Theme Presentation, and received a Silver Yearbook rating for achievement.

BUSINESS

This is my first year as business editor, taking on the challenges head first. This year I wanted to improve this section, which I think is the task of every editor. This is something that definitely takes time and dedication.

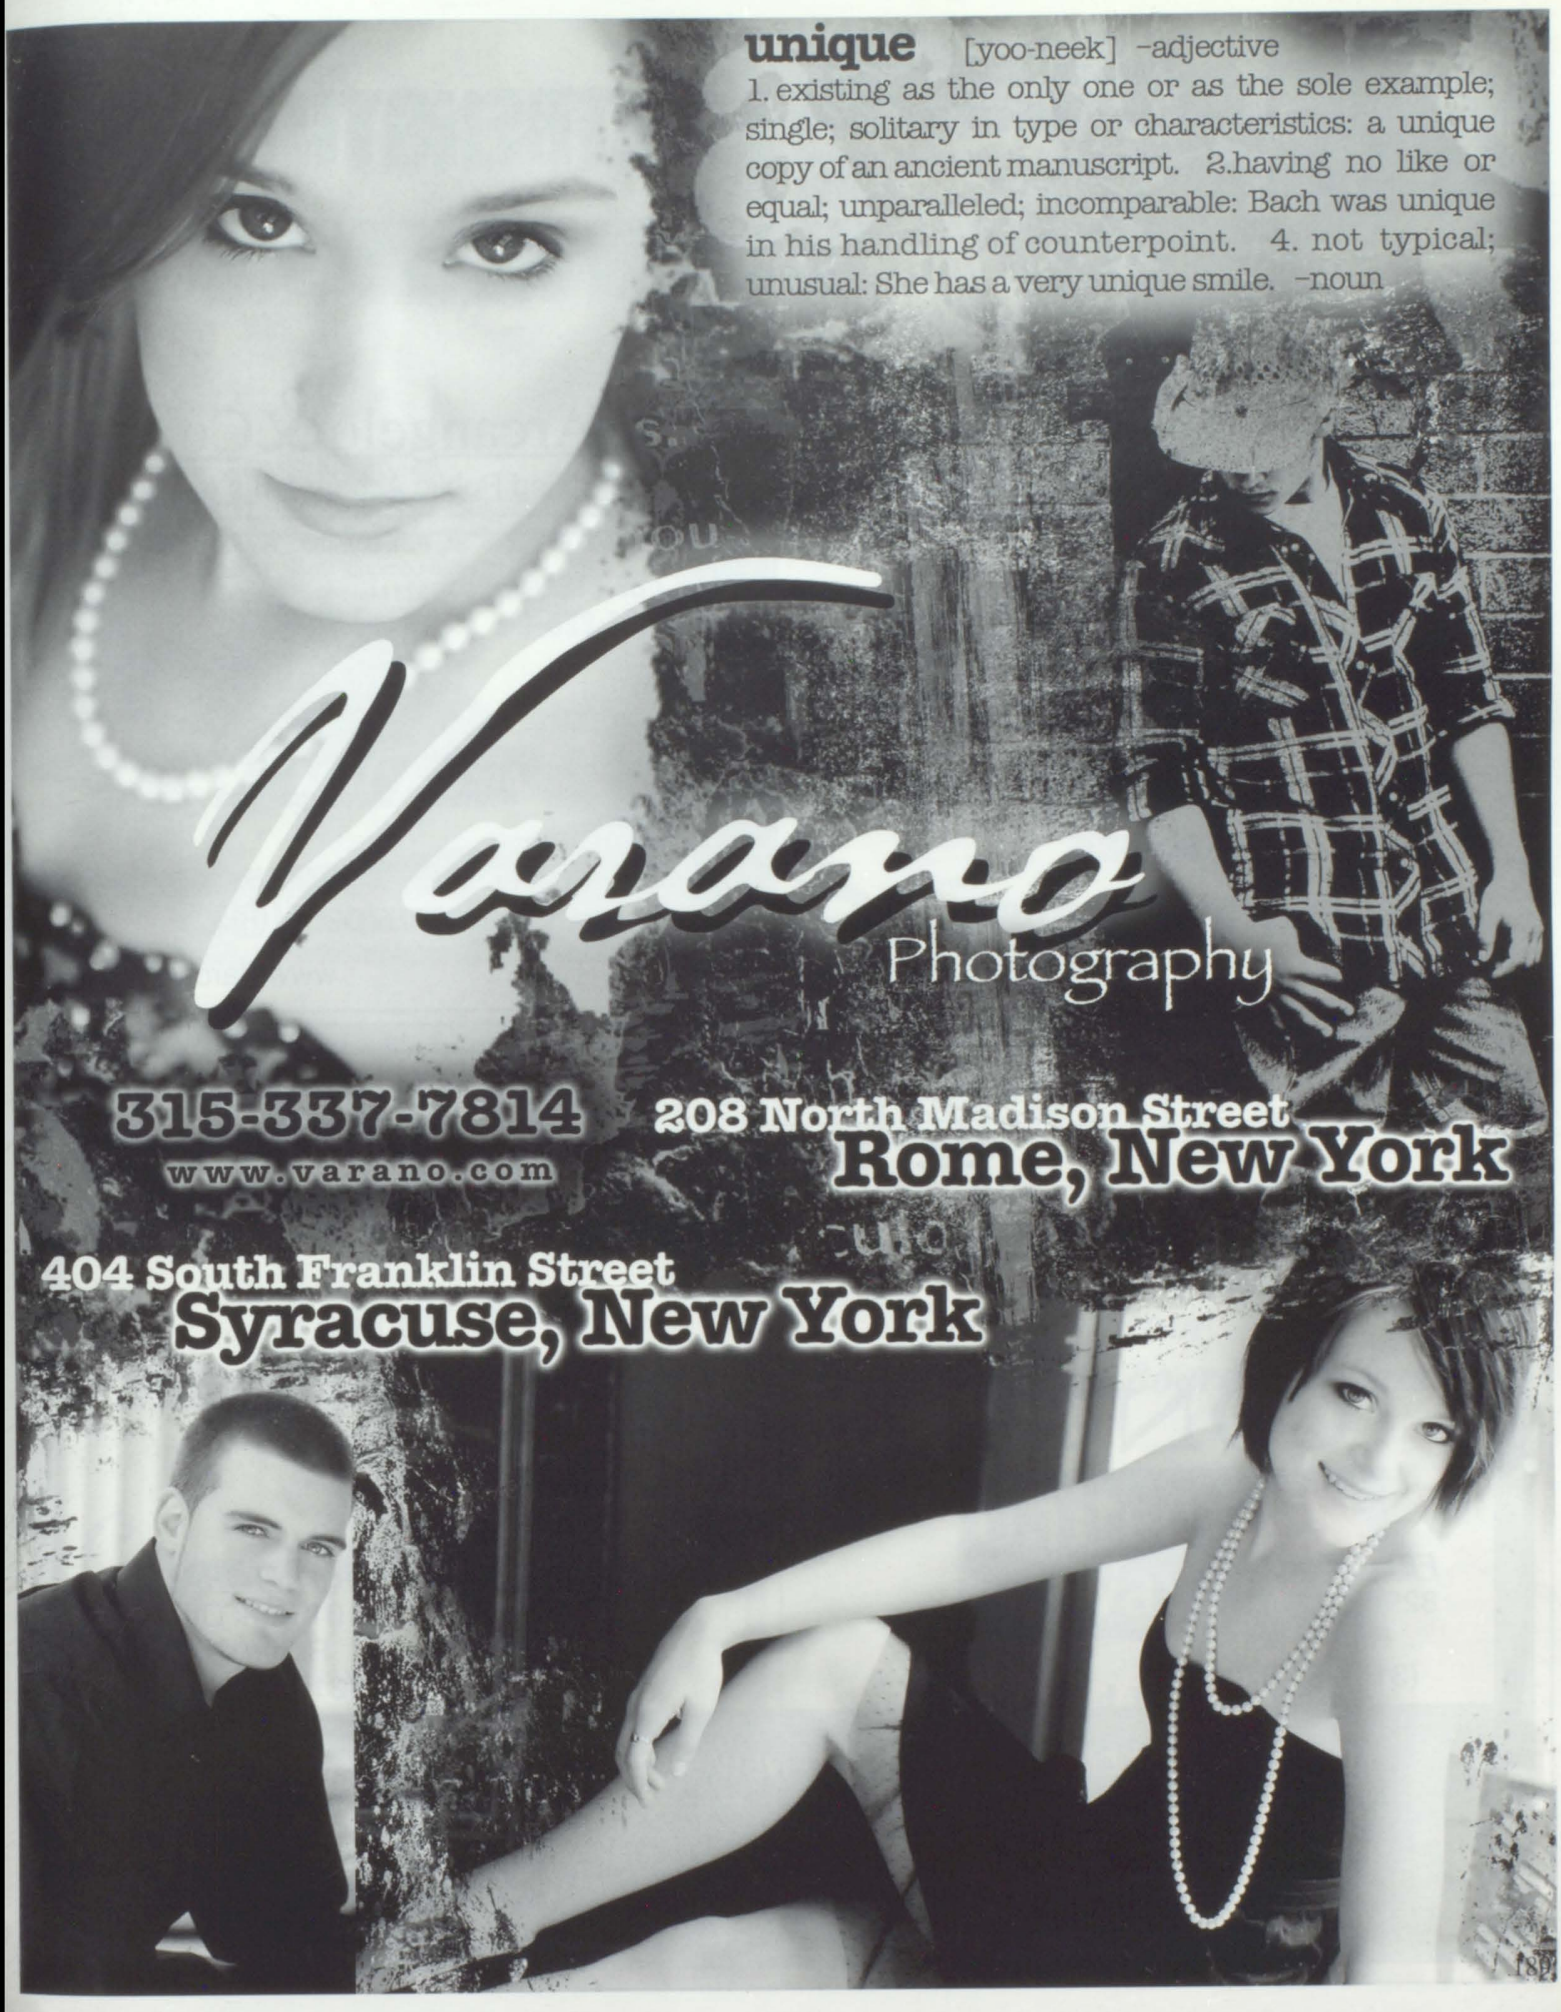

The business ads are the biggest source of funding for the yearbook. The yearbook staff has worked as hard as they could going to businesses, making phone calls and even sending out business letters. Making sure we had a lot of business ads was a major stress factor through out the year. I guess the stress on our staff made us work harder because we got the job done and I want to acknowledge the yearbook staff. Your hard work and determination to get a lot of ads paid off.

I want to thank our Editor -N- Chief, Cassie (My partner in crime) we have the same amount of yearbook experience and the fact that we are both editors for the first time is a major responsibility and she definitely keeps us on task. This year is only the beginning; we hope to increase our ads every year. A BIG thanks to our yearbook staff. Keep up the good work!!!

JENNIFER LYMAN

Jen,

It seems like yesterday you were the little girl in nursery school screaming at the thought of sitting on santa's lap. (funny how some things never change. He still creeps you out today.) Or the little girl who wouldn't say "here" in kindergarten when the teacher called your name and you were sitting right in front of her. Then one day that little girl crawled out of her shell and began talking to the kids in class, the teachers and even your friends parents. That shy little girl has become a strong independent young women who continues to make smart choices. We are very proud of you. Good luck in college and in all your endeavors.

GABRIELLE CATALINA LORETO

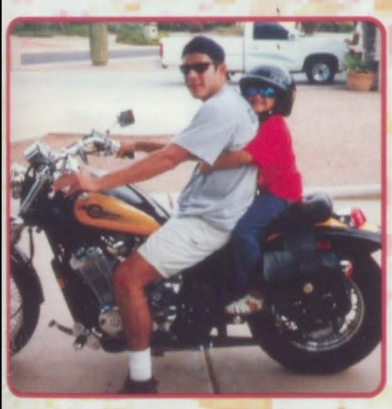

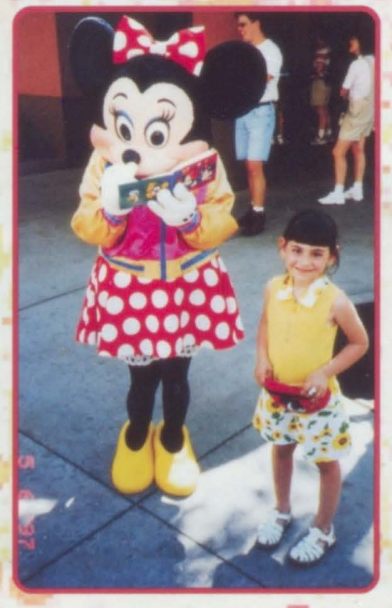

Dear Gabrielle,

How to make it in the game of life.

1.Never never never give up if your not first, your out.

2. Always be true to yourself. Because you can only count on yourself.

3.Always be good to others. You never know when you may need them.

4.Guard yourself and your family always from the world around you. Because the world can be a very cruel place.

5. Love life everyday like it was your last day, because it maybe

6.Good things will always come to you. If not make them come.

7. Don't sweat the small stuff. No one ever gets out alive.
-Remember it takes courage to grow up and become who you really are. The world is what you make it. Believe in yourself!!!
Love you
Forever

Our Wish For You...
Is that this life becomes all that you want it to Your dreams stay big,
your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to
I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things too.

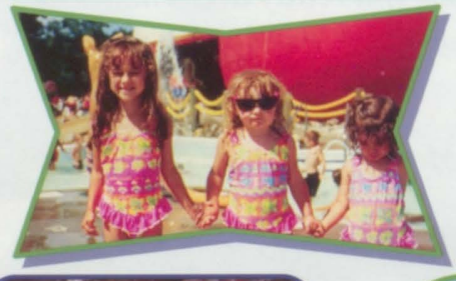

Our Hopes For You...
That you seek happiness not so much at the finish line,
as in the running;
That you have the strength not to lift tremendous weights,
but one fallen friend;
Not that the occasion makes you smile, but that your smile makes the occasion.

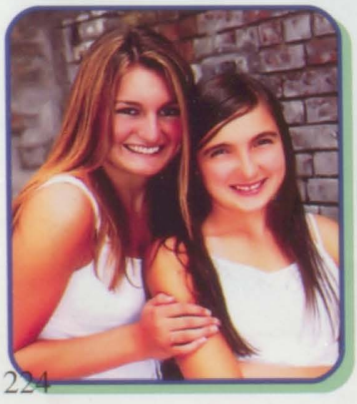

Always be true to yourself,
We are very proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad, & Karlie

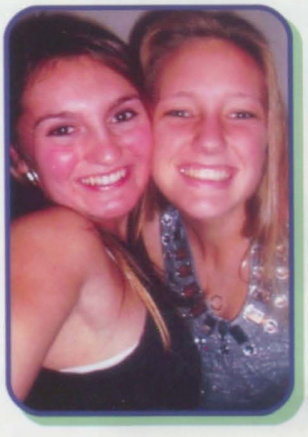

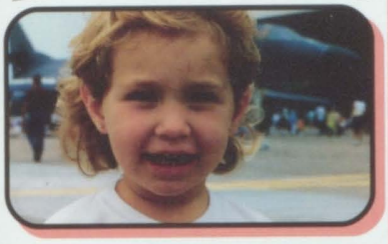

KRISTIN METZGER

Kristin,
Your high school graduation is here, my how the time has flown by. We are very proud of the young woman you have become and now it's time for us to push you from the nest and let you fly on your own. We are confident that you will be successful in all your endeavors, but should life throw you a curve remember that we will always be there for you. Only in our wildest imagination did we think we would ever see an Alaskan moose and for that we thank you. May all your hopes and dreams become reality and remember "Smilers wear a crown, losers wear a frown."
All our love,
Mom, Dad, Rich, Tricia, Josh and Erich.

ELIZABETH LOPEZ

Elizabeth,
It seems like only yesterday you were starting school. You have grown so quickly into a bright, strong, beautiful young woman and we know you will accomplish amazing things in your life. Reach for your dreams and remember we'll always be there for you. We are very proud of you!

Love always,

You gave me wings and made me fly
You touched my hand,
I could touch the sky
I lost my faith
you gave it back to me
You said no star was out of reach
You stood by me and I stood tall
I'm everything I am
because you loved me

Olivia,

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow, And each road leads you where you wanna go, And if your faced with the choice, and you have to choose, I hope you choose the one that means the most to you. And if one door opens to another door closed, I hope you keep on walkin' till you find a window, If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile, But more than anything, more than anything, My wish for you. is that this life becomes all that you want it to, Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small, You never need to carry more than you can hold, And while you're out there getting where you're getting to, I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too, Yeah, this, is my wish.

You are a wonderful young man. We are so very proud of you in so many ways. You are 35th in your class, we knew you could do it, even though it was unexpected. You have amazed us with your music ability, from the keyboard, to the tuba and teaching yourself to play the guitar.
Never lose your sense of humor, your unique quality to brighten up the room and your ability to empathize with others.
Good luck in college. Never stop learning and growing from every encounter and experience. We wish you all the best life has to offer. We will always love and support your choice, you have done a great job so far!

It's too hard to believe that your senior year of high school is coming to a close. You have made us SO proud to be your parents! Those who don't know you say you are kind, caring, intelligent, handsome, athletic, and let's not forget you have "skills!"

We hope you go on to play sports in college because we won't know what to do without a ball game to go to!

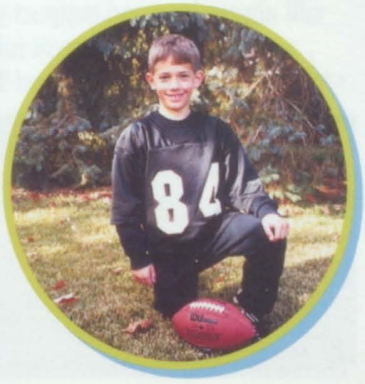

From now on, the ball is in your court, or off your foot, or in your glove, and the choice is yours where to send it. We will always be here to support your decisions. Just follow your heart.

Chasing rainbows and running free, that's the way it should be.
But God has called you to come home leaving me here alone.
He had a greater plan you see,
bigger than you and I could be.
I miss you each and everyday,
my heart cries out for you in every way.
You were my beautiful little boy,
who overwhelmed me with so much joy.
Your laughter and your smile kept me going for awhile.
So fly high my little one,
don't wait for me, your soul is now free.
Until again someday we meet,
hold the angels near my sweet.
I know you have heaven's love,
as I chase rainbows from above.
-Love Always, Mom

Brenden was born with a life threatening congenital heart defect. He was a pioneer for the children of the future. He had to undergo four open heart surgeries and had surgery for a pacemaker. For such a short time we graciously had been given an angel here on earth who now walks with God as his angel in heaven. Brenden was a beautiful baby who grew into a handsome, spiritual and inspiring young man. Throughout his life he showed us strength and courage. His smile so big and bright, his sense of humor carried us through.

He is a miracle and our hero. Brenden's heart was bigger than life, he had compassion for animals and was referred to as the "crocodile hunter." Brenden had an everlasting presence about him. Whether you met him or never knew him at all, his life and legacy he left behind has and will continue to touch the lives of so many people. At times I have been told that Brenden was blessed to have me for a mother but it was I who was blessed to have Brenden for a son.

Brenden you will remain in our hearts forever.

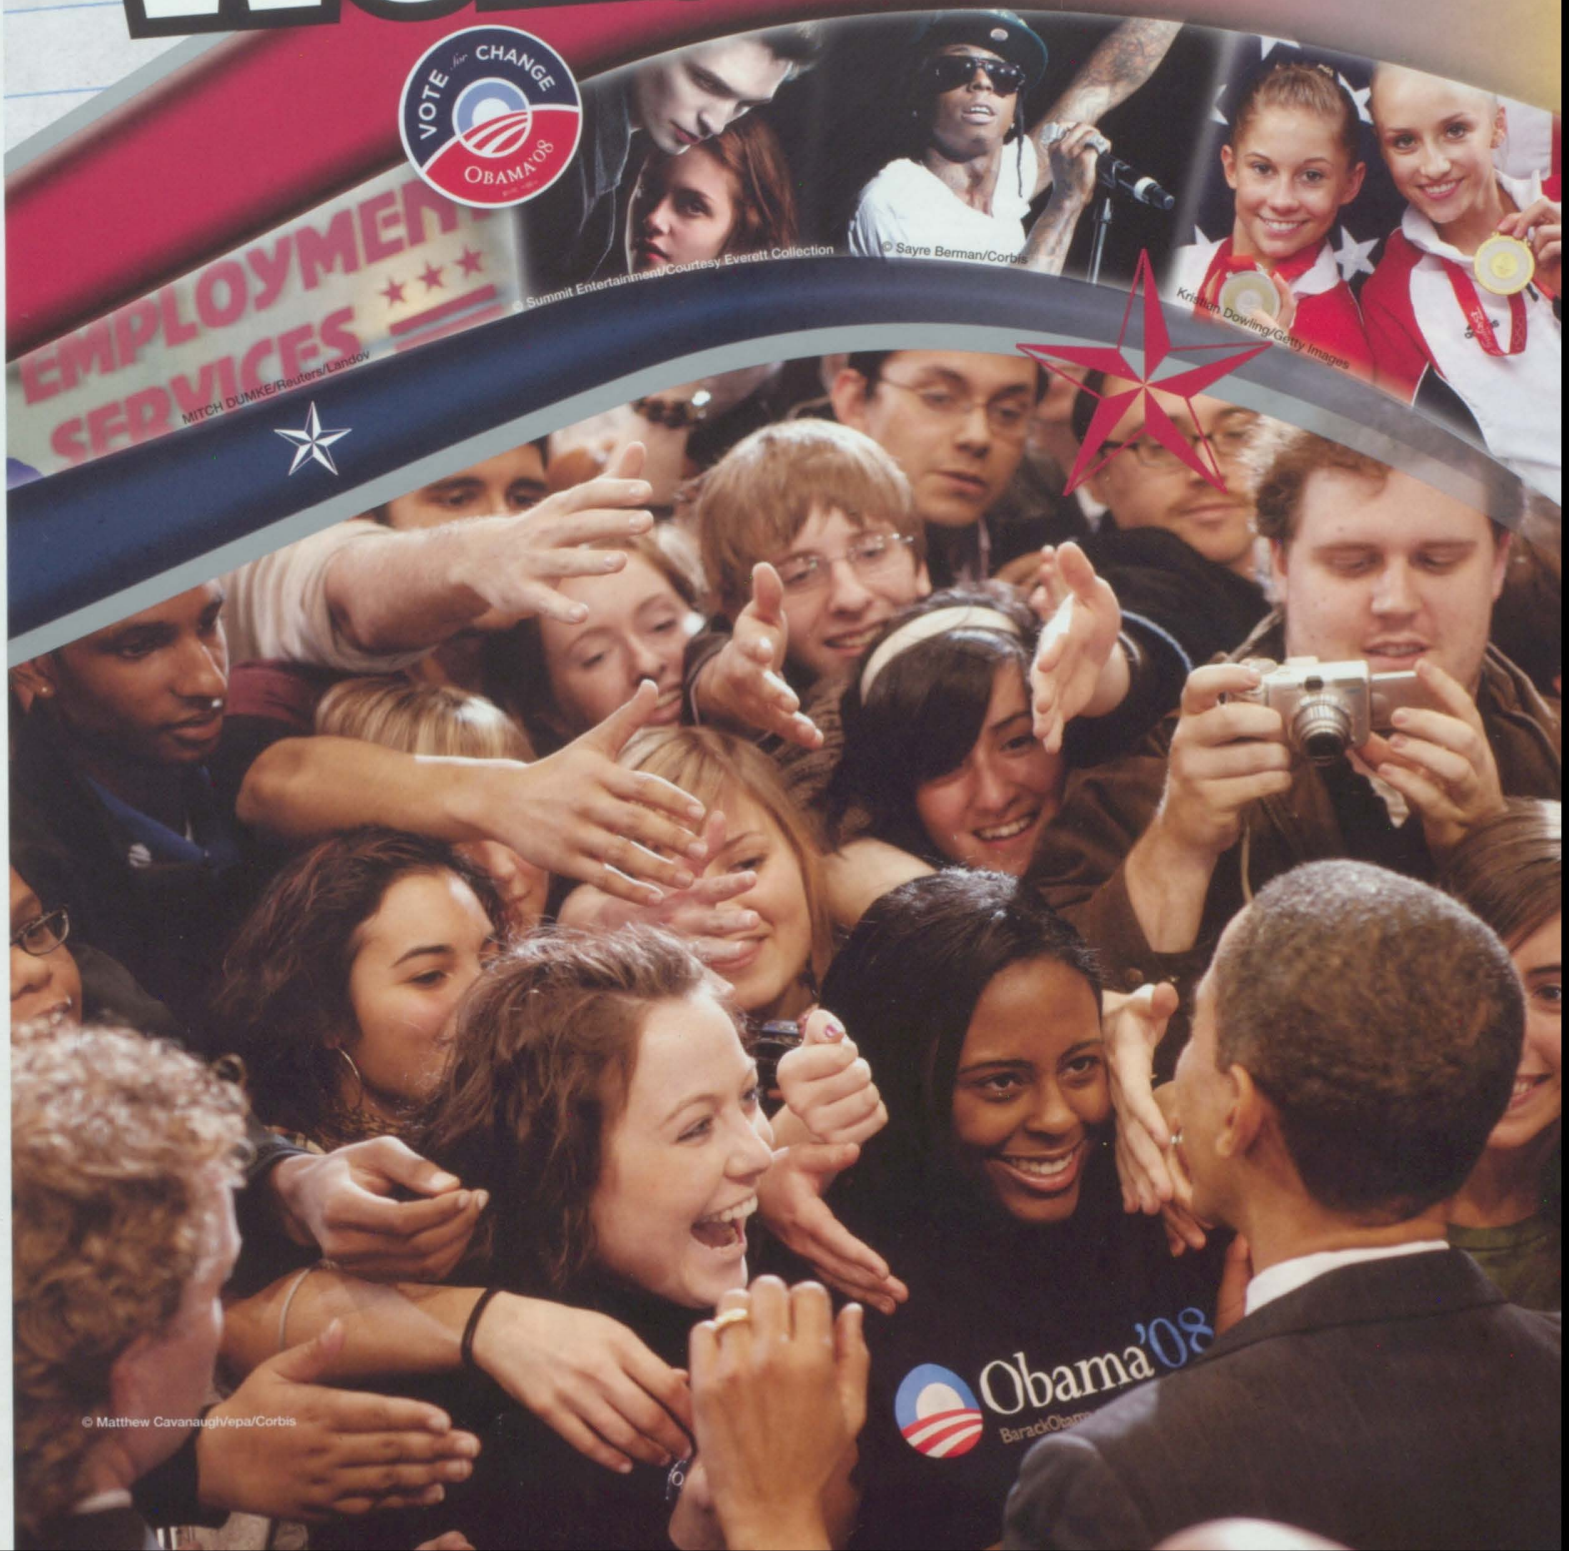

With love always, Mom, Christopher, Michaella and Avery
